

Cankdeska Cikana Community College
Board of Regents
Code of Ethics

As the governing body for Cankdeska Cikana Community College (CCCC), the Board of Regents (Board) sets policy for the college as vested to them by the Spirit Lake Tribal Charter and described in the Board Bylaws. Section II, Part B of the Bylaws outlines the Board's responsibilities with #7 stating, Follow, support and enforce College policies and procedures toward legal, ethical integrity and accountability.

CCCC Personnel Policies, policy #104 states, Cankdeska Cikana Community College serves the residents of the Spirit Lake Dakota reservation community. It is expected that all employees uphold the highest standards of professionalism, integrity, and character in performing their job functions and representing the College. Understanding and emulating the Dakota values is essential to the College's teaching and learning process:

Think Dakota, Live Dakota

Woksape	Wisdom
Wicowahba	Humility
Wowaditake	Courage
Wawokiya	Generosity
Wowaditake	Fortitude
Waohoda	Respect
Ohan owotana	Honesty, integrity

The CCCC Board of Regents understands that they follow the policies they set for the college and that the Board works cooperatively in a spirit of harmony toward responsible governance with the highest ethical conduct.

I, _____, as a member of the CCCC Board of Regents, understand and agree to the Code of Ethics as attested by my signature.
