

Marcie Young McKay Scholarship

Applications are now being accepted for the Marcie Young McKay Scholarship. The scholarship was established by her brothers and sisters in memory of Marcie Young McKay. She was one of the first Spirit Lake tribal members to graduate (1977) from Cankdeska Cikana (Little Hoop) Community College. This $500 ($250 per semester) scholarship will be awarded to one female student who is classified as a sophomore achieving a cumulative GPA of 2.0 or greater and demonstrate financial need. The recipient must be enrolled as a full time student at CCCC. Applicants must submit an application and one page essay on their future plans and how they will contribute to their community. Applications are also available in the CCCC Financial Aid Office.
