

Spring 2024 Annual Program Snapshot

Program Name:
AA Fine Arts (Formerly AAS 2021-22)

Program Faculty:
Carol Greywater

Program Highlights 2023-24

1. I received my Master's Degree in Fine Arts from UND in May of 2023.

2. All courses are offered as Hybrid now, with the exception of Crafts I and Three-Dimensional Art, which are in person only. Enrollment in the program has been steadily increasing.

3. The Fine Arts program held three art Shows in the Spring of 2024, including the North Dakota Universities Traveling Art Exhibit.

Current Program Goals 2023-24

[as reported on the Fall 2023 Program Goal Status Report]

1. The Fine Arts program will look for outreach opportunities to increase enrollment in the program.

2. The Fine Arts program will begin offering Drawing I as a hybrid course with an online option in order to increase enrollment.

3. Fine Arts students will be involved in planning and presenting a Student Art Show in the Spring of 2024 showcasing their work in the program in the CCCC Gallery.

Progress on Current Program Goals 2023-24

1. Enrollment is increasing and the Fine Arts program will continue to look for outreach opportunities to increase enrollment in the program.

2. The Fine Arts program will continue offering Drawing I as a hybrid course with an online option in order to increase enrollment.

3. Two students in the Fine Arts Program will be displaying their work in the program in an exhibition to be held starting April 22nd through May 10th, 2024.

Updated/Revised Program Goals for 2024-25

[Note: At least one program goal should be targeted at improving classroom pedagogy or curriculum.]

1. The Fine Arts Program will be incorporating more cultural arts into Crafts I, Three-Dimensional Design & Survey of Native American Art courses.

2. We will be offering more workshops during the Spring and Summer Semester focusing more on cultural artforms & Art Camps for kids.

3. The Fine Arts Program will look for ways to improve online instruction and demonstrations in both Painting and Drawing.