Natural Resource Management

Rewarding

Start a rewarding career after graduation, working to help Grandmother Earth Uŋčí Maká and her people.

Professional

Learn professionalism at an internship job site and in the classroom using industry-standard equipment to strengthen your skills.

Hands-On

NRM is an active, hands-on degree program with a range of exciting topics and specialization possibilities.

Individualized

Work with faculty to determine the best path for your career goals, whether that is transferring to a Bachelor's degree program or starting work immediately.

About

The Associate of Science (AS) in Natural Resource Management provides a theoretical foundation that is enhanced by experiential and service learning opportunities. The program is designed to expand students' knowledge of their environment while recognizing the importance of policy, society, and economics in relation to caring for Uŋčí Maká (Grandmother Earth). CCCC has a 2+2 agreement with North Dakota State University (NDSU) and United Tribes Technical College (UTTC).
